

Zero in on LendingPatterns™ and Gain Insight from Self-Exams.

 LendingPatterns

LendingPatterns will allow you to analyze your HMDA data before your regulator evaluates your organization. Know if you are considered an outlier, as defined by the FDIC.

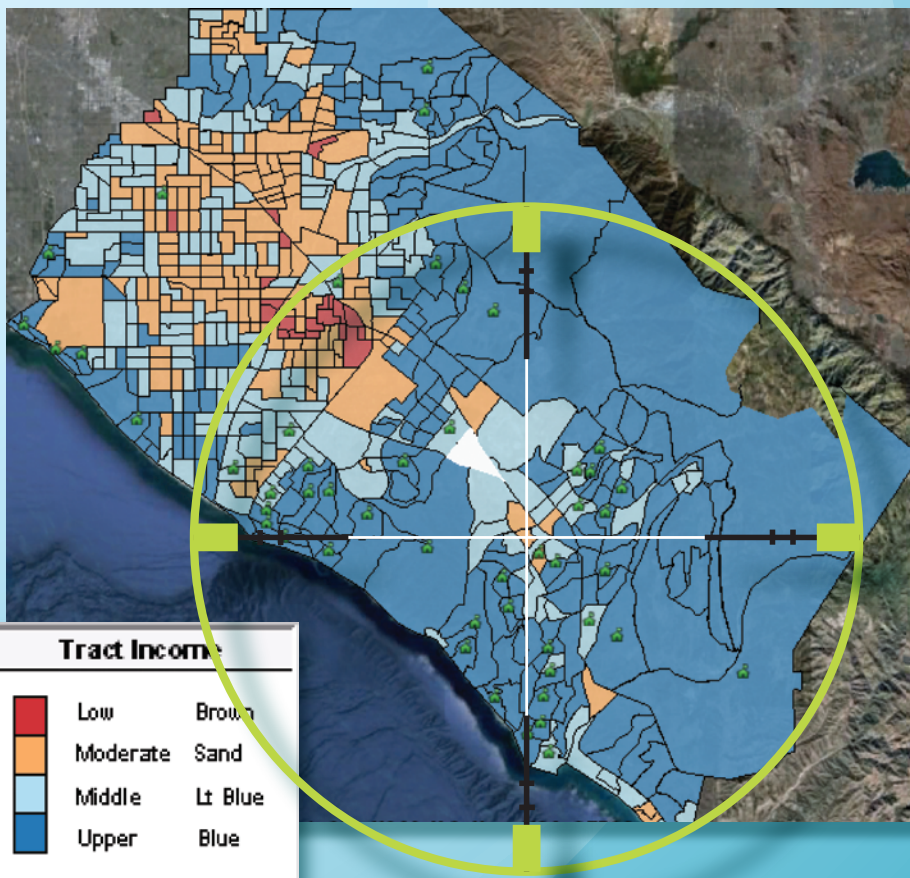

Order LendingPatterns to tell and defend your HMDA results and validate your CRA story before your next compliance exam. The results are highly useful in ongoing self-examinations and monitoring.

Use LendingPatterns as a first step to uncover and document any disparities compared to your peers.

Purchase LendingPatterns to gain these crucial abilities

- Uncover and document any disparities.
- View your HMDA data the same way a regulator will view your data.
- Identify compliance outliers.
- Learn best practices at the LendingPatterns orientation.
